ZZZZ.....Huh?! What?! Oh, hello. Who are you? I am Samuel and I am a shepherd. Oh, you're on your way to Bethlehem to see the new king. Well, then, I have some advice for you. You see, yesterday an angel came to me. I was scared out of my wits! But then, he said that a new king had been born and He was God's son! He also said I would find Him in a manger dressed in rags! That's no place for a king, I said! Just then, hundreds of angels appeared and started singing praise. I went blind they were so bright! I knew I had to see this "king" for myself. The only problem was I didn't know where to go. Then, I looked up and there was a huge star. I had to follow it! I just had a feeling. After that, it didn't take long to find him. He was in a barn with his mommy, daddy and a whole lot of animals. He looked so humble, yet had a heavenly glow like the angels. It wasn't until that moment that I put all the pieces together. Then I realized....that He was God's son! But, I guess you should see for yourself...remember to follow the star!
